Featured Workshops

Academic Integrity at UCF

If linking to the Golden Rule from your syllabus is not enough, what can you do to foster a climate of honesty and integrity for your students? This session will provide an overview of initiatives and resources on ethics and integrity at UCF. We will discuss positive ways to promote academic responsibility as well as deterrents like turnitin.com.

September 8, 10:30 – 11:30

September 15, 1:30 – 2:30

September 18, 1:30 – 2:30

September 29, 10:30 – 11:30

Don't Pull Your Hair Out: IRB and Faculty Research

This workshop will introduce faculty to the federally-mandated human subjects review process for scholarship that includes human subjects or their data. The workshop will cover what is and what isn't human subjects research and details about submitting IRB applications at UCF. There will be ample opportunity for Q&A.

September 16, 1:00 – 2:30

Internationalization Consultations

Faculty are invited to make appointments or just drop by for discussions about study abroad or internationalizing their courses and programs.

September 4, 9:00 – 10:00

September 10, 1:00 – 2:00

September 18, 9:00 – 10:15

September 25, 1:00 – 2:00

Teaching Large Classes

Classroom management, time management, lecture style, interactions with students, class activities, handouts of notes, and a million other variables seem to change when we teach large classes. We'll compare notes on best practices, and look at practical tips designed to both maximize student learning and save you time when teaching large classes.

September 9, 10:30 – 11:30

September 15, 3:30 – 4:30

September 30, 9:00 – 10:00

Wikis, Blogs, Podcasts, Facebook, RSS, YouTube and More

We'll provide an introduction and overview of emerging technologies that offer new ways to communicate and interact electronically with your students. Learn what blogs, wikis, podcasts, and RSS feeds are, and learn how to use them for your classes. We'll also explore ways to use YouTube, Facebook, digg, del.icio.us, Google Alerts, AuthorPoint, Camtasia, and a myriad of other online tools.
